

P. ADI LAKSHMI DEVI

Designation: Assistant Professor

email: padilakshmi@lbc.edu.in

Mrs. P. Adi Lakshmi Devi holds a Master's degree in English from Andhra University and has qualified APSET. She also holds a Post Graduate Diploma in Teaching English (PGDTE) from the English and Foreign Languages University (EFLU), Hyderabad. During her academic journey, she presented papers at district and national levels, with one paper published in collaboration with the Research Journal of English (RJOE).

With ten years of experience teaching English and Soft Skills to undergraduate students, P. Adi Lakshmi Devi has developed a strong foundation in education. Additionally, she has worked as a Spoken English Trainer, serving as a senior trainer in one of the leading spoken English institutes in Visakhapatnam. Alongside her academic career, she has three years of corporate experience in global organisations.

To stay current with modern teaching practices, she actively participates in Faculty Development Programs, workshops, webinars, and courses by National Geographic Learning and Cambridge Assessment English. Her dedication to both academic and professional growth ensures her effectiveness in the classroom and her ability to deliver quality education.