

G. PRAVEEN ANAND KUMAR

Designation: Assistant Professor, Librarian

email: praveenanand@lbc.edu.in

Mr. G. Praveen Anand Kumar is an experienced professional with a career spanning various roles in library and administrative services, currently serving as a Librarian and Coordinating Assistant to the Secretary & Correspondent at Dr. Lankapalli Bullayya College since 2018. He holds a Master's in Library Science (MLISc) from Dr. S. Radhakrishna College of Arts, Andhra University, and has cleared the UGC-NET in Library Science.

Anand Kumar's professional journey includes roles as Assistant Librarian, Documentation Incharge, Office Executive, and Technical Recruiter. His career began in 2005 as an Assistant Librarian at AQJ Degree College and Al-Ameer College of Engineering & IT, where he gained experience in library acquisitions, cataloguing, and using library management software like SOUL. Later, he managed technical documentation and library operations at Larsen & Toubro's Shipbuilding Project, where he maintained technical documents, standards, and drawings essential for engineering operations.

At Dr. Lankapalli Bullayya College, he handles library operations and assists with administrative duties, including data management, report generation, and coordination of events. Known for his adaptability and diligence, he has created a digital library resource and conducted training sessions, demonstrating his commitment to leveraging technology to enhance academic resources.