Mrs. N. Roopa Jyothi is an Assistant Professor in the Department of Management at Dr. Lankapalli Bullayya College, with over seven years of teaching experience. She holds a Master of Commerce (M.Com.) from Andhra University and has successfully qualified for both the APSET in 2016 and the UGC NET in 2017, specialising in Commerce.

Her teaching expertise encompasses core areas such as financial accounting, business law, and financial services, where she focuses on providing students with a solid understanding of these critical subjects. Through her practical approach and in-depth knowledge, she has been instrumental in helping students build a strong foundation in commerce, ensuring they gain both theoretical and practical insights into the field.
