

Sk. GOWSI BABU

Designation: Lecturer

email: sgowski@lbc.edu.in

Mr. Sk. Gowski Babu, a dedicated Lecturer, holds an M.A. in Political Science, an M.A. in Public Administration, an LL.M., and an M.Phil. With 27 years of undergraduate teaching experience, including his role at Dr. Lankapalli Bullayya College since 2009, he has developed a strong academic profile that reflects his deep commitment to education. He also serves as a National Service Scheme (NSS) Program Officer, a role he has held since 2010, further showcasing his dedication to community engagement and leadership.

His passion for teaching is complemented by his continuous pursuit of professional development, actively contributing innovative ideas and expertise to his institution. His commitment to inspiring students and fostering an environment of academic growth is evident in his teaching style, as he integrates practical knowledge with theoretical insights.

Beyond the classroom, he enjoys staying informed on contemporary issues, a trait that enriches his engagement with students, offering them a holistic perspective on education and life. His work in both academics and community service highlights his well-rounded approach to education, making him an invaluable asset to his institution and students.