

R. ANURADHA
Designation: Assistant Professor
email: ranuradha@lbc.edu.in

Mrs. R. Anuradha is an Assistant Professor in the Department of Business Administration with 8 years of teaching experience. She has cleared APSET in Management and is currently pursuing her Ph.D. at Andhra University, Visakhapatnam. She completed her postgraduate studies from Raghu Institute of Technology, affiliated to Andhra University.

Anuradha has made significant contributions to the academic field, including publishing an article in a Scopus-indexed journal titled The Impact of AI in HRM. Her expertise spans various management subjects, including Business Statistics and Management, Training and Development, Human Resource Management, and Business Organisation.

In her teaching career, she is committed to creating an inspiring learning environment, effectively guiding students through the complexities of management in today's ever-evolving business landscape. Her focus on both research and teaching enables her to contribute meaningfully to the academic community while fostering student success.