

Dr. ORUGANTI SITA RAMA PRAKASH

Designation: Assistant Professor

email: osprakash@lbc.edu.in

---

Dr. Oruganti Sita Rama Prakash is an Assistant Professor at Dr. Lankapalli Bullayya College. He holds a Ph.D. in Sanskrit from Andhra University, awarded in 2018. He has a rich academic background with an M.Phil. from Pondicherry University and an M.A. in Sanskrit from Andhra University. He has also completed a B.Ed. in Sanskrit and Telugu from Rashtriya Sanskrit Vidyapeetha, Tirupati, and holds a P.G. Diploma in Computer Applications.

Dr. Prakash has teaching experience at various institutions, including Sri Sri Paramahansa Yogananda Vidyalaya in Chittoor, RK Degree College in Vizianagaram, and Vijnana Vihara Residential School in Gudilova. He qualified the APSET (Sanskrit) in 2015 and CTET. His research contributions include papers presented at national seminars on topics such as ancient Indian sciences, Rajya Dharma in the Mahabharata, and the philosophical aspects of Soundarya Lahari and Manusmriti.

In addition to teaching, Dr. Prakash has been involved in co-curricular activities and completed the basic Scout Masters course at Rashtriya Sanskrit Vidyapeetha. He has published his research, including a paper on "Ramaevaparam Tattvam" at a UGC-sponsored international seminar. His academic pursuits reflect his deep engagement with Sanskrit literature and Indian philosophy.