

MONZY GEORGE
Designation: Assistant Professor
email: monzyg@lbc.edu.in

Mrs. Monzy George is an Assistant Professor with over 14 years of experience teaching English at Dr. Lankapalli Bullayya College and an additional 9 years at Bethany School. With a passion for language and communication, she holds a Master's degree in English from Andhra University in 2008. She also cleared the APSET examination in 2018, further demonstrating her commitment to academic excellence.

Monzy has actively participated in professional development, attending training programmes conducted by APSICHE and workshops organized by SIDAR, a renowned research group. She is also a NASSCOM trainer. Her commitment to academic excellence is further evident through her publication in the IUP Journal, showcasing her research and writing capabilities.

Monzy creates a student-centred classroom environment that emphasizes mutual respect and empathy. Her approach to teaching focuses on fostering a positive and inclusive learning atmosphere, where students feel valued and supported. Monzy's deep understanding of her students' needs and her ability to create a respectful and engaging classroom make her a highly effective and compassionate teacher.