email: bbhudevi@lbc.edu.in

Mrs. Bhesetti Bhudevi is an experienced educator with a strong background in Organic Chemistry. She is currently pursuing her Ph.D. at GITAM University, having previously earned an M.Phil. from Andhra University (2011-2014) and an M.Sc. in Organic Chemistry from MVR (AU affiliated) PG College, where she graduated with first-class honours.

With over 15 years of teaching experience, Bhudevi has served as a lecturer in Organic Chemistry at Dr. Lankapalli Bullayya College since July 2015. Before that, she was the Head of the Department of Organic Chemistry at Sri Gowri Degree College from 2008 to 2015. She also spent four years as a lecturer at Sri Krishna Degree College.

Her key responsibilities include providing students with both theoretical and practical knowledge in chemistry, organizing seminars and projects to enhance student skills, and evaluating student performance. Recognized for her teaching excellence, she was awarded the "Best Lecturer" title in 2013 at Sri Gowri Degree College. Bhudevi is dedicated to shaping her students' academic and personal growth through quality education.
