email: gpadma@lbc.edu.in

Mrs. Ganta Padma is an Assistant Professor in Mathematics at Dr. Lankapalli Bullayya College since 2016. She is currently pursuing her Ph.D. at GITAM University, further advancing her knowledge and expertise. With a strong academic background, she holds an M.Sc. in Mathematics from Andhra University, where she secured first place at the university level in 2013.

She has earlier taught at Rajah R.S.R.K. Ranga Rao College and Prism Degree & P.G. College. Throughout her career, she has demonstrated a commitment to academic excellence, as seen in her achievements, including qualifying the APSET in 2020.

Her professional journey includes active participation in numerous seminars, workshops, and conferences. She has also presented papers at international conferences, with recent works focusing on optimization problems using fuzzy logic and transportation methods. In addition to her teaching, Padma is committed to continual learning, having completed NPTEL courses such as "Basic Real Analysis." Her technical proficiency extends to programming languages like C, C++, and MS Office, which enhances her teaching and research capabilities.
