Mr. M. V. Prasad Yalla is a seasoned professional with over 32 years of experience across various domains, including campus training and placements, financial crime and risk compliance, marketing and sales, and corporate training and development. Since September 2022, he has been serving as Assistant Dean of Placements at Dr. Lankapalli Bullayya Colleges, Visakhapatnam, where he is responsible for liaising with corporate campus hiring teams and organising recruitment drives and skill enhancement programs for students.

Prasad's career spans multiple industries, including his 15-year tenure at HSBC, where he held senior roles in Anti-Money Laundering (AML) compliance, transaction monitoring, and process training. He also has extensive experience in business development, operations, and marketing, having worked in leadership positions at firms such as Phoebus Infotec and Genius Group of Companies.

An MBA in Marketing from Andhra University, Prasad complements his experience with technical expertise, holding certifications such as Microsoft Certified Professional and diplomas in computer hardware and applications. Throughout his career, Prasad has demonstrated a commitment to excellence, securing key contracts, training professionals, and contributing to operational success across diverse sectors.
