Mr. B. Vijay Ratnam is an Assistant Librarian with significant experience in library management and knowledge organisation. He is currently working at Dr. Lankapalli Bullayya College, Visakhapatnam, where he has been employed since October 2010. His career in library science began with hands-on training through an internship at Dr. V.S.K. Library, Andhra University, where he also participated in the "Earn while you learn" programme.

Mr. Vijay Ratnam holds a Master's Degree in Library and Information Science (MLISc) from Andhra University, alongside advanced qualifications in Human Rights & Duties (M.A.), Human Resource Management (MHRM), and a P.G. Diploma in Industrial Relations and Personal Management. His diverse academic background has equipped him with a broad perspective and specialised skills.

In addition to his educational qualifications, he possesses strong computer skills, including proficiency in MS-DOS, Windows, D-Base, CDS & ISIS, and Soul, which enhance his capability to manage modern library systems. His prior experience includes two years as a Librarian at C.O.T.R. College, Bheemli, Visakhapatnam. Mr. Vijay is known for his positive attitude, enthusiasm for acquiring new skills, and commitment to library services.
