

GAJULA SURENDRA

Designation: Lecturer

email: gsn@lbc.edu.in

Mr. Gajula Surendra is a Lecturer in the Department of Commerce. He holds a Master of Commerce (M.Com.) degree from Dr. Lankapalli Bullayya PG College, Visakhapatnam, and a Bachelor of Commerce (B.Com.) degree from the same institution, both affiliated to Andhra University. Surendra began his teaching career at Alwardas School of Business in Gajuwaka, where he worked from November 2020 to January 2022. Currently, he serves as a Commerce Lecturer at Dr. Lankapalli Bullayya College, Visakhapatnam, a position he has held since December 2022.

Beyond his teaching responsibilities, Surendra has actively participated in various webinars focusing on online teaching tools and the future of financial research. His interest in education extends to both academic and practical learning, reflected in his commitment to keeping up with evolving educational trends.

In addition to his academic contributions, Surendra is a dedicated sportsman, having represented Andhra University's baseball team in the All India Inter University Tournament (2018-2019) and played cricket at various levels, including state school games and prestigious college tournaments. His balanced approach to academics and sports highlights his dedication to overall development, both for himself and his students.