

Department of English (PG)

Programme Outcomes:

- To enable students to understand the role and importance of English language and literature and to help students succeed in the Global Market and get placed.
- To enlighten the students about the role of Literature in transforming the society and individual as well.
- To train them in Communication Skills so that they will be potential employees in the job market.
- To inculcate ethical values through Literature teaching which ensures the holistic development of an individual.

Course Outcomes:

SEMESTER I
Course	Outcomes
British Literature and Linguistics	C O 1: To understand the structure and themes of British Poetry up to Nineteenth Century C O 2: To learn the origin, development techniques and social milieu of Elizabethan, Jacobean and Caroline Drama C O 3: To study the themes and techniques of British Fiction of Eighteenth and Nineteenth Centuries C O 4: To be exposed to the importance of Philosophical ideas of Prose writers up to Nineteenth Century C O 5: To get acquainted with the Linguistic and Phonetic concepts of English Language
SEMESTER II
Course	Outcomes
British Literature and History of English Language	C O 1: To understand the changes in the structure and themes of Victorian and Modern British Poetry C O 2: To learn the modern and post-modern trends in British Drama C O 3: To study the Modern and Post-modern techniques and themes employed in British Fiction C O 4: To be exposed to the Modern and Post-modern trends in British Prose C O 5: To familiarize the History and Spread of English Language
SEMESTER III

Course	Outcomes
Literary Criticism, English Language Teaching and Other Literatures in English	C O 1: To learn the various theories of Literary Criticism C O 2: To gain knowledge in various genres of American Literature C O 3: To recognize the importance and contribution of Indian Writers to English Literature C O 4: To be exposed to New Literatures written in English across the continents C O 5: To learn the techniques of teaching English in a classroom setting
SEMESTER IV
Course	Outcomes
Literary Criticism, English Language Teaching and Other Literatures in English	C O 1: To learn the modern theories and practical application of Literary Criticism C O 2: To gain knowledge in various modern and post-modern trends in American Literature C O 3: To study the changing trends of Indian English Literature C O 4: To realise the importance of World Classics in Translation C O 5: To be acquainted with the advanced techniques of English Language Teaching